About the Conference

The 2nd South Asian Global Intellectual Property Conference 2025 proudly stands as South Asia's largest, most impactful and most prestigious Intellectual Property Conference, bringing together the region's and world's leading voices in innovation, law, governance and technology. With its unmatched scale, international participation, and world-class academic collaborations, this conference has emerged as the premier regional platform for global IP scholarship, policy dialogue, and interdisciplinary collaboration. Organised by the Centre for Development of Intellectual Property and Research (CDIPR), Naovina Development of Intellectual Property and Research Foundation the conference forms a core annual event of the 2nd South Asian Global Intellectual Property Summit, 2025. This year's edition, powered by Global Collaborations with the Cambridge – Teachers of Tomorrow, Global Entrepreneurship Network (GEN), Global Innovation Policy Center (GIPC) and Internet Governance Forum (IGF), aims to elevate scholarly discourse and expand cross-border knowledge networks.

Scheduled to be held on 23rd December, 2025, the conference provides an international platform for researchers, academics, policymakers, professionals and students to explore emerging challenges, contemporary trends, and future opportunities in the ever-evolving domain of Intellectual Property Rights.
